

Mentor biography:

Name: Carina Madrigal

Education level: Bachelors of Applied Science

Areas of expertise: Apprenticeship (2 yr commitment)), Child Growth and Development, Environment, Curriculum, and Practice. Health, Safety, Nutrition, Inclusion/Special Needs, Literacy, Observing, Recording and Assessing Child Outcomes, Playground Safety, Relationships with families and social – emotional areas. In addition, I am able to serve as a translator to Spanish and to provide assistance with CORE classes as math and science.

Number of years in the early care and education field: 9 ½ years

Regions in which I would like to mentor/coach: Ada, Elmore, and Gooding County.

What mentor/coaching means to me: It means the possibility to help someone to be a better person and to help them improve their abilities and skills to their full potential.