

Idaho AEYC Request for Proposals Early Care and Education Professional Learning Sessions Early Learning Conference 2024 June 21-22, 2024 | Boise Idaho

Idaho AEYC, a non-profit agency that serves the state of Idaho by working to improve the quality of child care and raise awareness about the importance of early education, is seeking proposals for professional learning sessions to be presented during the Idaho AEYC Early Learning Conference, June 21-22, 2024, in Boise, Idaho.

The 2024 Early Learning Conference will focus on “School Readiness: The Whole Child.” The intent of this topic is to help early educators understand what they can do to help families, schools, communities, and organizations be ready for children rather than just focusing on helping children be ready for school.

Professional topic areas of interest include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Responsive Caregiving
- Compassionate Inquiry and Interactions
- Making Connections and Building Resilience through Co-regulation
- Creating Caring Relationships with Children and Families
- Sensory Integration and Wellness
- Active Learning through Play-Responsive Experiences
- Creating Engaging Environments that Promote Curiosity
- Family Engagement to Support Active Learning
- Reflective Practices and Self-Care for Early Educators
- Developmentally Appropriate Expectations
- Promoting Confidence and Competence in Early Learners

Professional learning sessions will be presented in-person at the Conference and are typically 1.25 hours in length. Hands-on learning modalities are highly encouraged. Sessions may be offered in English and/or Spanish.

To submit a proposal to provide one or more professional learning sessions, please include the following information:

1. Name/Contact Information (email, phone, address)
2. Professional Resume, C.V., or Background Information
3. Topic Area(s) of Professional Learning Session(s)
4. Proposed Audience, Length, and Description for each Session (including learning modalities and anticipated outcomes)
5. Proposed Content (Outline) for each Session
6. Proposed Cost, including travel and all associated costs
7. Proposed Materials/Resources to be distributed to session participants

Please email proposals and/or questions to: EarlyLearning@IdahoAEYC.org
